TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES WITHIN) THE STATE OF KENTUCKY)

O R D E R

On October 16, 1992, Call Home America, Inc. ("Call Home America") filed its application with the Commission seeking a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide intrastate, long-distance telecommunications services as a reseller within the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Call Home America is a Texas corporation proposing to resell long-distance services, from carriers certified to provide telecommunications services within the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in its tariff. Call Home America is not seeking authority to provide operator-assisted telecommunications services.

Call Home America does not own transmission or reception telecommunications equipment or facilities used to provide its services. All operating facilities, equipment, and networking will be provided by the certified underlying carrier. Order processing and customer billing shall be provided by Call Home America.

In Call Home America's December 23, 1992 response to the Commission's November 24, 1992 Order, it informed the Commission that money had been collected for non-certified service. This alleged violation was resolved in Case No. 93-017 by Commission Order dated March 12, 1993.¹

The application provided by Call Home America demonstrates its financial, managerial, and technical capability. The rates proposed should be approved as the fair, just, and reasonable rates to be charged.

The Commission, having considered the application, the information provided by Call Home America, and being otherwise sufficiently advised, HEREBY ORDERS that:

1. Call Home America be and it hereby is granted authority to provide intrastate, long-distance telecommunications services within the Commonwealth of Kentucky on and after the date of this Order.

2. Call Home America shall comply with the provisions of the Orders in Administrative Case No. 323.²

3. Call Home America's authority to provide service in this Commonwealth is strictly limited to those services described in this Order and Call Home America's application.

4. The rates proposed by Call Home America are hereby approved.

² Administrative Case No. 323, An Inquiry Into IntraLATA Toll Competition, An Appropriate Compensation Scheme for Completion of IntraLATA Calls by Interexchange Carriers, and WATS Jurisdictionality, Phase I, Order dated May 6, 1991.

5. Within 30 days from the date of this Order, Call Home America shall file its tariff sheets in accordance with 807 KAR 5:011 to conform to the restrictions and conditions of service contained herein.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 2nd day of April, 1993.
